The screenshot shows the IBM Cognos Analytics interface. At the top, a green notification bar indicates that 'mock_kaggle.csv' was uploaded successfully. Below this, the 'Content' view is displayed, showing a grid of content items. The items are organized into two rows and four columns. The first row contains '50_Startups.csv', 'Assignment 1', 'Assignment 2', and 'mock_kaggle.csv'. The second row contains 'Pharma_Monthly_Sales.csv', 'Story: Assignment 2', 'Story: New exploration', and 'Template: Assignment 2'. Each item card shows the name, last accessed time, and a CSV icon. The interface also includes a search bar and a 'New' button in the top right corner.
